25 DALHOUSIE STREET & 30 MUTUAL STREET

The Opportunity

25 Dalhousie Street and 30 Mutual Street is a luxury two-tower multi-family development located on the north side of Queen Street East fronting onto Dalhousie Street and Mutual Street. The developments will feature over 500 residential units and offer a wide mix of retail units totaling 9,714 SF of premium retail space. The development is part of a four-tower masterplan, infusing the neighborhood with additional retail, commercial office space, purpose-built rentals, and market condominiums. Over half of the development is dedicated to the public realm with the addition of two communal outdoor spaces and retail featuring animated, brick-lined pedestrian walkways that weave throughout the site – fostering a sense of community with a cohesive campus.

Echoing the existing character and architecture of Queen Street, the towers feature a consistent material palette with lively frontages to strengthen their connection to the neighbourhood. Designed by award-winning architectural firms, Hariri Pontarini Architects and Turner Fleischer Architects Inc., the development will provide a suitable transition between the densely built downtown core to the west and the low-rise residential neighbourhoods to the east.

Downtown East

Downtown East is one of Toronto’s fastest growing nodes, with approximately 6,700 residential units and 90,000 SF of office space set for completion over the next 3 years within 500 metres of the development. Situated in Historic Queen East, tenants and visitors of the property have convenient access to the area’s wide range of boutiques and restaurants. Downtown East is a node where old and new co-exist, where heritage buildings stand alongside modern condominiums and businesses. The neighbourhood is serviced by the 501 Queen Streetcar and is a short walking distance to Queen Subway Station, the Toronto Eaton Centre and the Financial Core.

Just south of the development is the St. Lawrence Market neighbourhood. Home to the famous St. Lawrence Market Complex, the neighborhood features historic architecture, exciting theatre, quaint shops, charming restaurants, and unique landmarks. Also south of the property is the King East Design District, which includes numerous furniture design stores and strives to lead Canada in contemporary design, art, and culture.
